Instructions for Listing Agreement

1. Fill out all areas to the best of your ability.
2. Information must be accurate as this information will be passed on to the prospective purchaser.
Seller is responsible for inaccuracies and/or omissions.
3. Sign the listing agreement where indicated by mail or you may scan and email back.
4. Send any information you can supply to help in the sale of your time share.
5. IMPORTANT: You must notify us if you space bank, rent, or in any way make your timeshare not usable for the next available usage. If we do not hear from you we will assume all information on the listing agreement is accurate and the week is available for usage.

WHAT WE DO TO GET YOUR TIME SHARE SOLD!

1. Your listing will be posted on our website at www.RedbudTimeshare.com. You will have two pictures and a complete description of the resort. The listing will appear with pricing and any "bonus" extras you choose to throw in.
2. We have some of the most popular internet web sites for time shares. We make sure our web site is seen by anyone looking for a time share on the web. We also multiple list with other brokers who meet our standards of ethics.
3. Most sales come with our exclusive one-year Satisfaction Guarantee. This guarantee gives the buyer the extra "comfort zone" they need to do business. (98% of resale buyers do not see the resort they are buying until sometime much later) This guarantee is of no cost to you and does not obligate you in any fashion. It helps get your time share sold. From time to time we also have special promotions we offer buyers as an incentive to do business with us. This again is of no obligation or cost to you.

TIMESHARE LISTING AGREEMENT

GENERAL CONDITIONS:

1. This agreement is non-exclusive; you may use other brokers or agencies without cost or obligation to Redbud Timeshare.
2. It is the owners' responsibility to contact Redbud Timeshare Realty, Inc. in writing, if the property is no longer available for sale. This will stop further efforts by us to secure a buyer. If Redbud Timeshare informs you or submits to you a contract of sale at full asking price ("full asking price" means any amount within $25 of your stated asking price) we have then earned our commission. If the property has already been sold or taken off the market, AND if Redbud Timeshare was not notified in writing, we are due our full commission. We get paid only by doing the job you hire us to do. Non-payment for our services will subject you to the cost of collection and late fees. We are being fair and honest by not charging you upfront fees. We expect you to be fair to us as well.
3. All proceeds from the sale will be disbursed in a timely manner upon closing by the title company handling the closing.
4. Owner shall indemnify and hold Redbud Timeshare Realty, Inc., its officers and employees harmless against and from any misrepresentations or omissions made herein by owner or failure of owner to perform hereunder. Seller(s) warrants that the information in this Agreement is true and correct to the best of his/her/their knowledge and belief, and may be used as a basis for presenting the property to prospective buyers. Seller is obligated to inform Broker of any material changes in the information contained herein.
5. This agreement shall be in effect for eighteen (18) months from the date of signing. It may be cancelled without cost or obligation by either party with three days written notice.
6. The commission is 10% or a flat fee of $1500, whichever is greater. For properties worth less than $1500, we'll "get rid of it for you" and our commission is whatever the property brings on the market, with the minimum commission being $800. Your ONLY cost for the sale of your time share will be our commission. Closing costs are paid by the buyer. We work HARD for you.
7. Once you sign your listing agreement: DO NOT BANK ANY MORE WEEKS. Only if your week is within 30 days of starting should you bank your week so that you don't lose it. Your goal is to sell the timeshare, not give it to the exchange company. Call us if you have any questions on this.

Whom Do You Trust??

In the world of time share resales, there are the “good” guys and the “bad” guys. Unfortunately, the odds are stacked against you. With 13 years experience, we at Redbud Timeshare Realty have seen just about every scheme and scam imaginable. So in deciding whom you should do business with, here are some tips on what to look for, and what to look out for:

- 1. First, NEVER, EVER, under any circumstances pay money upfront to get your time share sold. If you haven’t figured it out yet, these are sucker bets. They’ll hit you for hundreds of dollars for nothing more than an advertisement. They’ll promise you giant sums of money for your time share. They’ll promise you a sale so fast you’ll be cashing the check before the week is out! BUT FIRST! They need your credit card number for a tiny little “advertising” fee (or “appraisal” fee or any of a number of different excuses). Don’t be fooled, don’t be conned, and don’t be scammed. Would you give a real estate agent money before they sell your house? Why do you think this is any different? Pay for results only. They sell the property, they get paid. No excuses, no exceptions. Not exaggerating at all, we get calls every day from folks who were scammed once, twice and sometimes even three times before they figured out it was all a con. They still own their time share, and someone else has their money. Sad, but true; there are many companies out there who are in business for nothing more than collecting upfront fees.
- 2. Know who can legally sell your time share for you, and who can’t. By LAW, the only company who you can hire to sell your time share for you must be a licensed real estate brokerage. Every state in the U.S. now considers time shares to be a real estate transaction. This is true whether your time share is deeded or not, and whether your time share is in the U.S. or not. If the company you hire is not a licensed Real Estate Brokerage, they’re nothing more than an advertising agency. They can put an ad on the internet, among thousands of others, and wish you luck. These companies will usually cross the line and promise you great things, all for just a small “advertising” fee of a few hundred dollars. But they deliver nothing. If a buyer calls them, they legally cannot answer questions about the time share on your behalf (that becomes an agency relationship and requires a real estate license and agreement between agent and seller). They cannot collect a deposit on your behalf (that constitutes having an escrow account which is governed by law. Only a licensed Real Estate Brokerage, title agency or title attorney can provide escrow services). They cannot write a contract on your behalf. In other words, all they can do is give the caller your phone number! And for this you paid an upfront fee!
- 3. Become a buyer for a day! Not really, but pretend. Before you hire a company, give them a test run. Call their office and ask for information about a listing on their web site (pretending to be a buyer, not a seller). Or, ask for help in picking out the right one. Or simply email them about one of their listings. Put some questions together and see how they reply. This is how the buyer of your time share is going to be treated when they call in or email. Is the company working on your behalf? Are they responding quickly to calls or emails? If not, why are you even considering them?

What’s My Time Share Worth??

Know your market and your competition. Having a price that is hundreds or thousands of dollars higher than comparable listings only makes the other listings look better! Look at our web site at www.RedbudTimeshare.com to see other listings. If you bought your time share direct from the resort, you’re going to lose money on a resale, period. And it’s going to be a sizable loss. A 60-70% loss is not at all unusual, and it could be more. If anyone tells you different, they’re probably asking for hundreds of dollars in “up-front” fees. A buyer will spend hours on the internet shopping and comparing. They will buy the least expensive comparable property they can find, just like you would. There are hundreds of thousands of time shares for sale. Price yours properly and it will sell. Price it too high and you will own it forever.
